Rushmere Hall Hockey Club

WHO IS THIS FOR?

Girls and boys in Years 3 and 4

WHEN IS IT?

Monday after school: 3.30-4.30pm

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

Total cost is £16 per child (£2 per session)

WHEN DOES IT RUN?

Monday 4 March - Monday 1 April (PLEASE NOTE: there will be NO session on Monday 25 March), and then after the Easter holidays: Monday 29 April - Monday 20 May

WHAT EQUIPMENT IS NEEDED?

Sessions will be outside, so children should wear appropriate clothing and they need to wear shin pads and a gum shield (available cheaply at Sports Direct). Don't worry if you don't have a hockey stick - you will be able to borrow one.

WHAT WILL I DO?

You will learn all the skills needed to play hockey - how to dribble a ball, pass to others and score goals. There will be skills challenges and games, and you'll have lots of fun!

WHO IS THE COACH?

Luke Curtis, the Sports Development Officer from Ipswich School Sports Centre in Rushmere, takes these sessions.

HOW DO I BOOK?

Fill in the slip below and return it to the School Office with your money - £16 for the term. Cheques should be made payable to ISE Ltd. There are limited spaces available so please book early!

ISSC

Did you know?

The England and Great Britain hockey goalkeeper, George Pinner, and three other members of the national teams, Harry Martin, Hannah Martin and James Gall, played hockey at clubs and schools in Ipswich.

Perhaps you could be the next international hockey star?
