I am extremely positive person.

I am a very happy and animated teacher.

I am very dedicated to my job, family and friends.

I am very approachable and can help sort out a problem.

I work hard to complete my work on time.

I am very organised. This is essential being a teacher!

I am resilient. I never give up!

I am very sociable with the people I work with in school.

I work well in a team and will always go above and beyond what I am expected to do.

Things I would like you to know about me..

I have been a teacher for 2 years and was an Early Years Practitioner for 22 Years.

I have worked at Rushmere Hall for 9 Years.

This will be my 2nd Year in Year 2.

I live in Ipswich.

I love to read books and I really enjoy sharing stories with my class.

What makes me happy..

Teaching makes me happy.

I like being in my classroom – it is very bright and colourful.

Quiet times where I can read my book and drink coffee.

Working as part of a team.

Sitting on the beach eating fish and chips.

Going for walks.

Going to my gym classes and exercising.

When I am with my friends.

Watching a movie, eating popcorn and chocolate!

How I think I work best...

When I've fully understood what I have to do I feel more confident.

When I am in a calm and quiet environment.

When I always try my best even when sometimes I find it a bit tricky.

When everyone shares their ideas.

I like a little bit of praise when I have done something well!

I like to work as part of a team but I also like to work on my own.

I like to listen to quiet music to help my brain zap!

I love a challenge!

When I am organised and I have everything I ready for my lesson.

When I have a cup of coffee.

When I am brave and trying something new! Like when I went Kayaking or when I had to write a BIG essay for my teacher training!
