

My One Page Profile

Name: Miss Hammond

Rushmere Hall Primary School

What people like and admire about me..

- I am enthusiastic and always have a smile on my face
- I am always told I am a kind and thoughtful person
- I have lots of energy especially when I am at school
- I am very organised and love stationery (just like most teachers!)
- I take time to think things through before I make a decision and always ask for help when I need it especially when supporting my students
- I try to find the positive in every situation and help others to do the same
- I love to-do lists and making plans to help me get everything I need to do done

Things I would like you to know about me..

- I am new to Ipswich and grew up in Leicester
- I am the eldest of 4 children and love being part of a big family
- Penguins are my favourite animal and I know lots of random facts about them

What makes me happy..

- Being outside in the sunshine
- Reading – my bookshelf is overflowing at the moment
- Helping other people
- Cuddles with dogs
- Working as part of a great team and helping each other succeed
- A hot cup of tea and cake
- Spending time with my family and friends

How I think I work best...

- I like to plan what I need to do and break it down into smaller, more manageable chunks so I don't feel overwhelmed
- I like to practise skills and receive feedback to get up my confidence
- I always ask for help when I am stuck so that I can learn from other people
- I like a quiet and calm environment to help me focus especially when I am working on something challenging
- I like to use whiteboards and big sheets of paper to help me with my working out and so that I can see all my ideas in one place
- I always double check what someone is asking me to do or what a question is asking to make sure I am confident in what I am supposed to do
- When working in a team on big projects so that we can share our ideas
