Policy Links to our KEY SKILLS: BEHAVIOUR POLICY

KEY SKILL	How this policy / approach will enable children to develop these skills...
Independent	Children are able to see the stages of the behaviour chart and there is an opportunity for pupils to make a choice independently about whether they take themselves for a time out.
Adaptable	This policy enables children to develop their adaptability skills. The skills surrounding the time out / 'time to think' part of the policy are skills that we hope children apply to other aspects of their lives.
Resilient	Our policy is about building resilience. Encouraging children to accept their mistakes and acknowledge things cannot always be perfect.
Organised	The attitude to learning gradings encourage organisation.
Reflective	Our new policy allows for plenty of reflection time. Pupils are encouraged to reflect on their behaviour through the 'Time To Think Sheet'. Playtime reflection with an adult is not a punishment, it is a chance to reflect on what went wrong and would they could have done differently.
Ready to learn	Children are rewarded for improving their 'readiness to learn'. The attitude to learning grading system allows pupils to consider their learning against the 10 point scale.
Dedicated & Motivated	The attitude to learning assemblies encourage pupils to be dedicated as the challenge of receiving all 10 of the skills certificates has been set and made explicit. Pupils will need to be dedicated to continue to apply themselves to meet the challenge.
Resourceful	Our restorative justice approach allows children to work how an issue can be resolved.

Behaviour for Learning Policy

Review of the policy

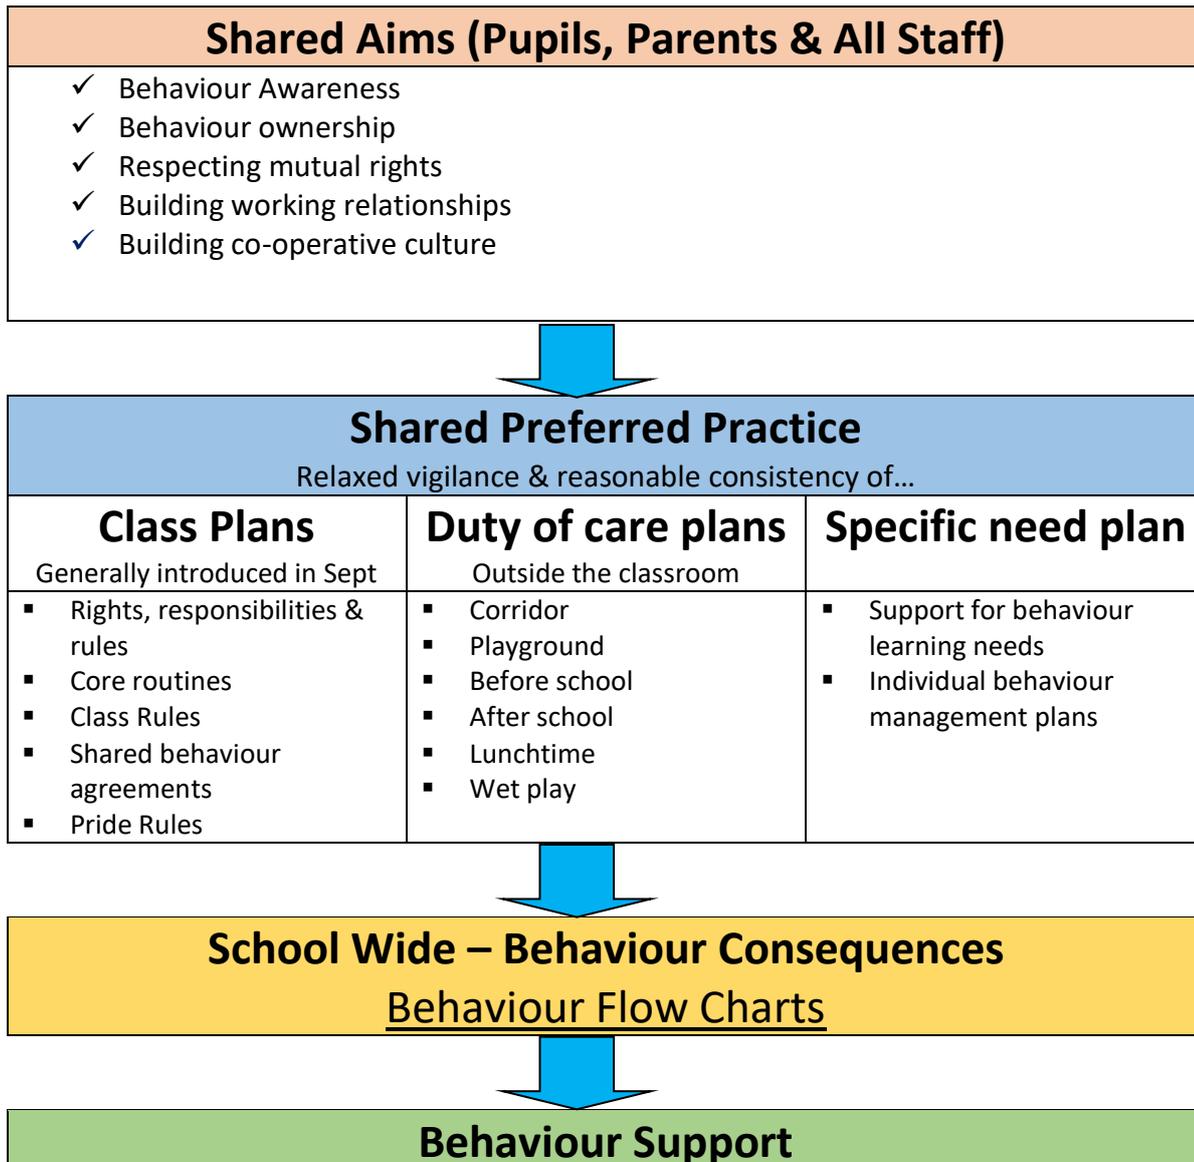

The Behaviour and Discipline Policy will be reviewed annually.

Date of implementation: November 2016

Date of review: February 2018

Our Behaviour Approach

Our Shared Aims

The school has a number of shared goals which it hopes to achieve through the implementation of this behaviour policy. The aims have been separated into 5 key areas.

✓ Behaviour Awareness
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Create an environment where expectations of behaviour are high. A place where good behaviour is expected always and only exceptional behaviour is rewarded.• Foster the children's self-esteem and confidence through encouragement and positive feedback, to enable them to become increasingly independent as learners and to focus on values that will enable them to become fully rounded individuals.
✓ Behaviour ownership
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Develop children's resilience and desire to be their absolute best as often as possible.• Create individuals that do not crave incentives, rewards or acknowledgment and to recognise that the best reward is knowing that they have been their best. A skill that will be useful for life!• To own their behaviour and take responsibility for their actions.
✓ Respecting mutual rights
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Provide a secure and enriching environment where learning can take place with enjoyment.• Reduce the amount of disruption in the classroom, allowing those who want to learn to learn well.
✓ Building working relationships
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Pupils who are skilled to make sensible decisions about friendships and understand how their actions affect others.
✓ Building co-operative culture
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Pupils that are strong and confident and have high expectations about how they are treated, or allow themselves to be treated by others.

Rushmere Hall has a very clear expectation of the behaviour that it expects from its pupils. Pupils will not get a pat on the back for being sensible, kind and hardworking... that is the minimum expectation!

This message is shared with the children at the start of every academic year and they are reminded throughout.

At Rushmere Hall, you are SENSIBLE, HARDWORKING and KIND always because that is what is expected. No ifs, buts or maybes!

This is what we expect!

Shared Preferred Practice

The school has agreed on its preferred practice. These are set of individual plans that ensure the school operates effectively and consistency.

Reasonable consistency – The school aims to be as consistent as possible with its application of the preferred practice.

Relaxed vigilance – The school believes that the staff need to be relaxed in their approach to behaviour management without becoming obsessive or military in approach.

Rights & Responsibilities

Our approach to behaviour & discipline is positive, believing that everyone in the school has:

The right to respect from others

The right to learn & to teach

The right to feel safe

We believe these rights and most likely to be achieved when there are clear rules and people understand their responsibilities.

How do we do this?

- We teach the children how to solve their own problems through discussion, so they learn how to think things through and talk together until they agree.
- Through our support we help them to develop the ability to take responsibility for their own actions and to see the links between their own behaviour and the consequences of their actions.
- We speak assertively to disruptive pupils, using language that is decisive, firm and clear. We aim to approach discipline in a positive and consistent.

Children are encouraged to offer their points of view and express their feelings within this framework.

Rights & Responsibilities

Rights of RHPS Children

I have a right to:

- Feel safe & happy
- Learn
- Be treated with respect
- Know my property is safe
- A clean & tidy school

Responsibilities of RHPS Children

I have a responsibility to:

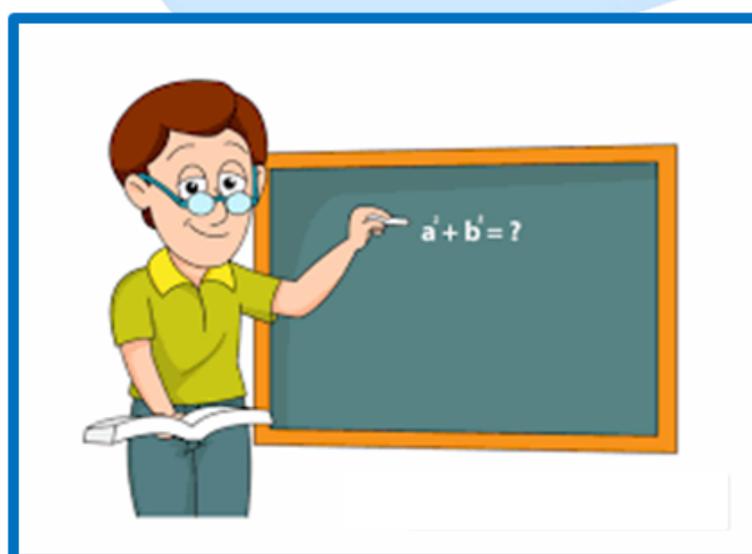

- Make others feel safe & happy
- Help others learn
- Respect other people
- Respect & care for other people's property.
- Help keep the school clean & tidy

Rights & Responsibilities

I have a right to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Work in a safe & supportive community.• Have the support of pupils and parents.• Feel valued personally & professionally.• Teach without disruption• Be shown courtesy & consideration by all in the school community.• Opportunities to teach a broad & balanced curriculum, with appropriate resources.• Professional development.• Have personal and school property respected.• A clean, tidy & orderly school environment.	I have a responsibility to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Support others and provide a safe classroom environment.• Work in partnership with parents & keep them informed about the curriculum and their children's progress.• Value & respect others in the school community.• Provide high quality teaching and an appropriate curriculum• Treat others with care, courtesy & consideration.• Allocate appropriate time to plan, evaluate and monitor high quality teaching & learning.• Attend appropriate INSET and develop and grow professionally.• Take care of the property of others & the school.• Promote a clean, tidy & orderly environment, & share responsibility for common areas; hall, corridors, cupboards etc.

Rights & Responsibilities

Rights of Parents & Carers

I have a right to:

- Effective communication with the school.
- Useful information about their children's progress, achievements & the school.
- Be treated with respect and have their opinions valued.
- Receive helpful feedback about their children's education and the progress of the school in general.
- Have their children work towards their potential.
- Expect their children to work in a clean, orderly and tidy environment.

Responsibilities of Parents

I have a responsibility to:

- Work in partnership and keep in regular contact with the school and its staff.
- Support their children's education and make every effort to keep themselves informed and respond if the need arises.
- Be involved in the activities of the school.
- Ensure that time talking with teachers, does not take them away from their teaching & class responsibilities.
- Actively support school decisions, policies and rules and share them with their children as appropriate.
- Respect school staff and pupils and value their opinions.
- Talk positively about the school, its staff and the community with their children.
- Work in partnership with the school to support their children with their learning.
- Make every effort to understand the curriculum being offered to their children.
- Help keep the school environment clean.
- Ensure their children are appropriately dressed and prepared for school.

Code of Conduct RIGHTS

Everyone in the school & nursery community has a right to:

- ✓ Equality of regard & opportunity
- ✓ Mutual respect
- ✓ Be safe at school
- ✓ Learn & teach in an atmosphere which is supportive & secure

Adults and pupils are expected to be polite and thoughtful towards each other.

Staff & pupils have a collective responsibility to ensuring good, positive behaviour and discipline throughout the school.

Staff aim to demonstrate, through example, appropriate and sensitive behaviour at all times and in varying contexts, so that children can learn from them.

Teachers will discuss and negotiate rules of classroom and school behaviour with their pupils at the beginning of each academic year.

This will contribute to the sharing, discussing, modification (if & when appropriate,) and agreement of the whole school rules.

Processes and procedures for defining and dealing with inappropriate and unacceptable behaviour form part of the Behaviour Policy.

Code of Conduct RESPONSIBILITIES

Everyone in the school & nursery community has a responsibility to:

- ✓ Ensure the school/nursery is a welcoming and happy place to be.
- ✓ Move quietly and thoughtfully around the school and show awareness of others.
- ✓ Be sensitive to the needs and feelings of others and to behave in ways that reflect this.
- ✓ Ensure the school environment is kept tidy and that resources and materials are respected and handled appropriately.

Classroom Rules

To help protect our rights & to encourage personal responsibility, we have basic rules for our classrooms, nursery & school community.

These classroom & school rules are discussed, negotiated, shared and agreed annually through circle times, Class and School Councils and whole school assemblies. During the year they will be re-visited and reinforced as appropriate.

Problem Rules

Concerned with the ways in which we solve problems between each other.

Learning Rules

Apply to the ways we learn and play in classrooms and outside.

Movement Rules

Concerned with how we move around the school.

Talking & Communication Rules

Apply to agreed means of communication within the classroom and in the playground, sensible volume levels when talking, and using positive and courteous language.

Safety Rules

Apply to behaviour and the care and use of equipment.

Treatment Rules

Concerned with how we interact and treat each other & our surroundings.

Pride Rules

Personal

Keeping safe, by following instructions - sensible
Always moving safely in school
Keeping your uniform tidy and wearing it with pride

R

Respect

Being polite to all staff & helpers
Listening to all staff and other children, when they have been asked to speak
Being silent in assembly, unless asked to speak

I

Independence

Knowing the rules and not having to always be reminded
Looking after your possessions and those that belong to the school and other children
Being in the right place at the right time

Do Your Best

Always doing your work or activity to the best of your ability - hardworking
Always presenting your work at its best

E

Everybody Matters

Being kind
Helping others
Accepting that we are all different

School Wide Behaviour Consequences

The school has a clear process for responding to both exceptional behaviour and poor behaviour.

Attitude to learning Skills – Recognition

At Rushmere Hall Primary School we believe that it is our role to develop a habit of lifelong learning within our pupils. In order to achieve this teaching must work to strengthen our 'Attitude to Learning' skills.

The Attitude to learning scale focuses on 10 key learning attributes:

Each week in the Learning Assembly, pupils are recognised for displaying these skills across the weeks. During the assemblies, children are reminded what each of the key skills are and how they can work towards them. The aim is to constantly expose children to the learning skills and traits that are important and discuss how we can work towards them rather than focusing on the elements they are not doing. The additional bonus with focusing on learning skills means that it is not based on outcomes (e.g. the neatest handwriting). ALL pupils in the school have the opportunity of achieving these.

As part of the Attitude to Learning, the school promotes that all pupils should at least be working at a level 6. The highest score that can be achieved is a 9.

Year R to Year 3

9	I can work really well by myself and in a group. I always want to work hard, not just for my teacher but for myself. If I find stuff hard or I make mistakes, I know its okay because I'm learning and I will make me stronger. I look at my work and always look for ways to improve. My work can be outstanding. I am always ready to learn.
6	I complete work that my teacher gives me. I normally ask for help when I need it. I do make some choices by myself. I am a hard working pupil. I can make mistakes and not get upset. I know I'm learning.

Year 4 to Year 6

9	I am very organised and resourceful . I am an independent learner. I use reasoning tools effectively. I am very motivated and resilient . I reflect on my learning and readily adapt to improve weakness . My work can be outstanding . I am always ready to learn .
6	I complete work to match my ability. I generally ask for help when I need it. I show some initiative. I am a hard working pupil. I show some resilience and responsibility.

Positive Consequences and Rewards

Giving rewards and verbal praise to pupils enforces and encourages positive behaviour and builds a strong feeling of value and self-worth. At Rushmere Hall we are very careful not to give out rewards and praise to children for behaviour that is expected of them. We expect all children to be kind, sensible and hardworking. There is no reward for this. This is what we expect.

However, at Rushmere rewards are given for, among other things, for children who go beyond what is expected of them, for display of excellent attitude to learning (or one of the 10 key attributes), when children have made good behaviour choices and praise is given to reinforce where the above has been seen within the classroom or the playground environment. If a particular child has a behaviour plan, specific rewards and incentive made be used.

Class Points

Within each class, teacher may use a points based system to help create a positive learning environment. Within some classes, teacher may allocate themselves points e.g if pupils are not on task Pupils will be made aware of what they are collecting points for.

Pride points

This system is used within the classrooms and across the school to recognise exemplary acts of politeness, helpfulness, acts of kindness, excellent working and anything that is connected to the Pride Rules.

Children will allocated to a Pride Team at the start of their time here at Rushmere. If a child is rewarded with a pride point they will be given a token which will be dropped into the counting tubes at the front entrance.

The winning pride team will receive a Pride Playtime at the end of the half term and the points will be reset to zero.

Learning Award (Merit)

- Each week children will be chosen by the class teacher to receive a learning award. A child is chosen who has demonstrated one of the 10 key attributes from the Attitude to learning.
- The teacher can choose more than one person per week, and can elect not to choose any. These awards are only given if demonstrated.
- Pupils are encouraged to achieve all 10 of the key attributes to complete the full set. At the end of the year, pupils who have achieved multiple learning awards will be considered for a 'Learner of the Year' prize.
- Teachers may decide to send home postcards to parents whose child produces great work in the classroom or those that needs to be acknowledged.

Distinction

- All pupils will be given a Distinction if they have been sent to the Head teacher having completed exceptional work* (*work deemed exceptional for their ability not in comparison to the class)
- Parents will be alerted to the Distinction awarded by text message from the Head teacher.

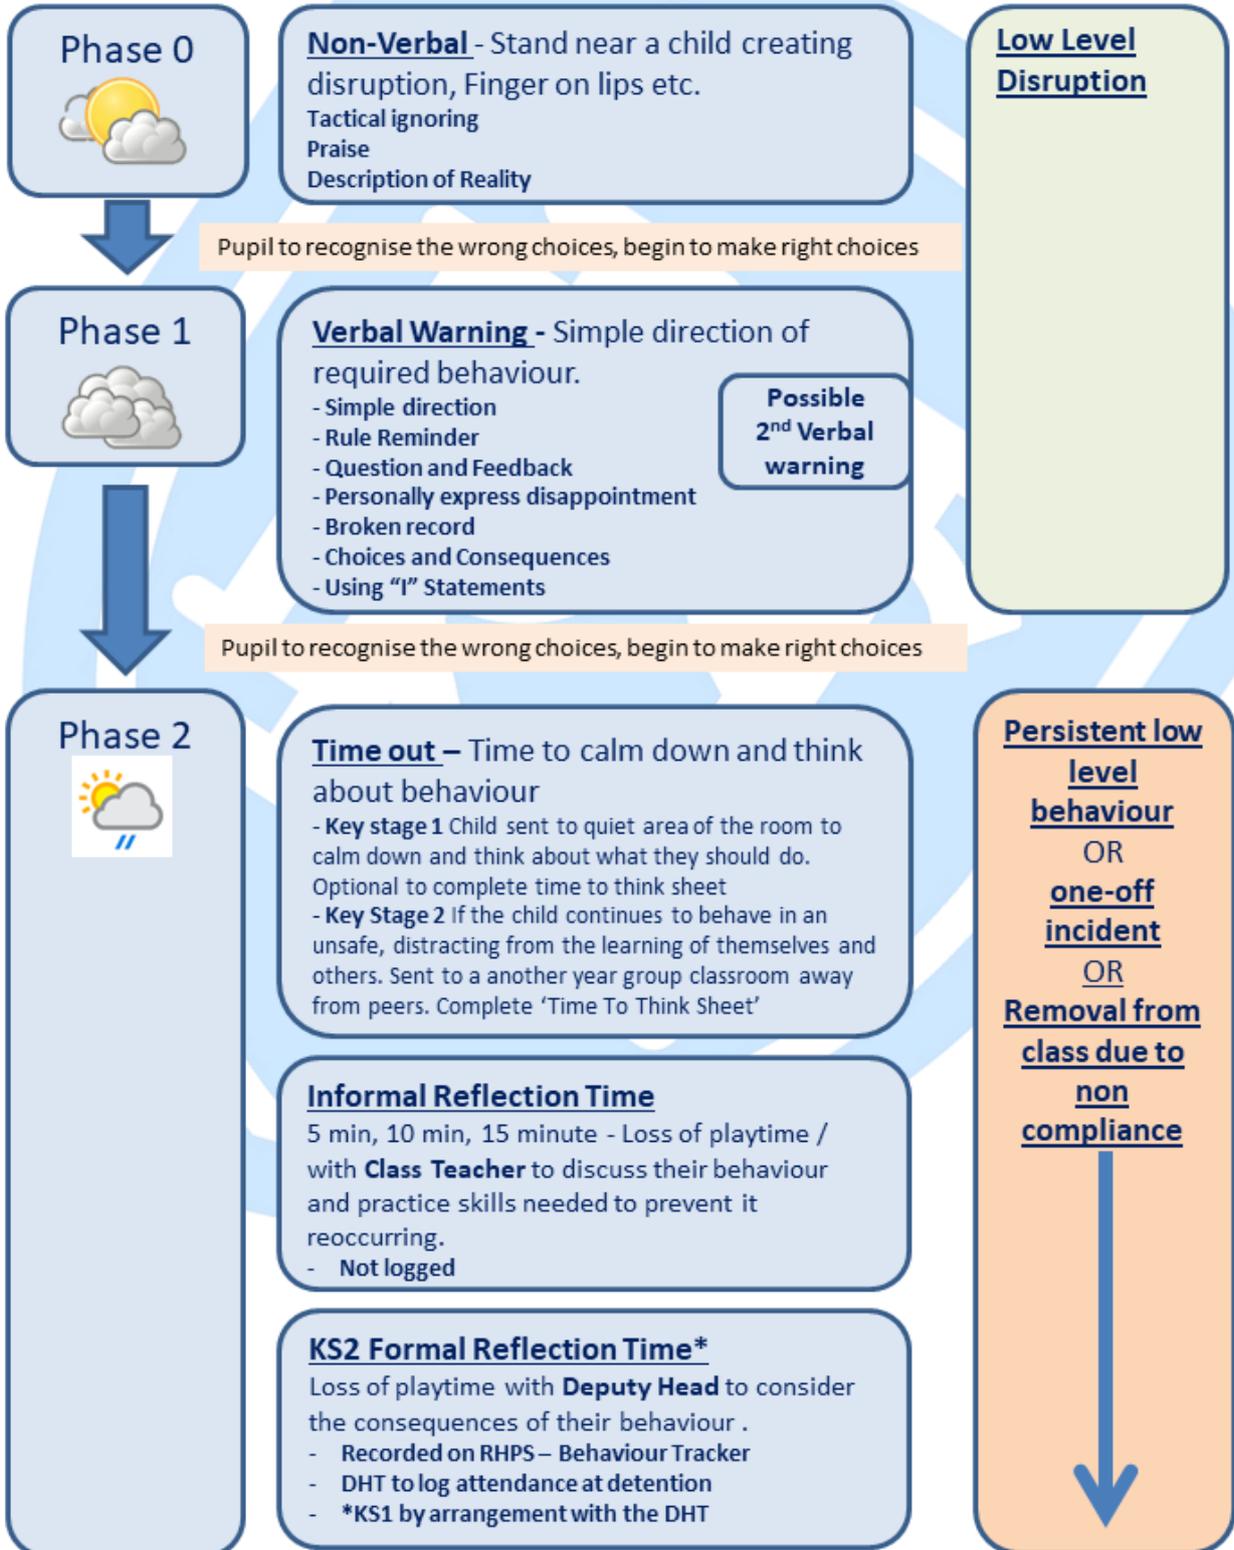

Other Rewards

- Sent to Phase Leader for praise and recognition
- Sent to DHT, AHT, SENCO for praise and recognition
- Name included in the class blog
- Text message sent home.

Phase 3

RED Form Completed

SLT make the decision whether or not to issue a RED FORM
Parents are contacted and RED form sent home.

3 forms in a 6 week period. Parent meeting called.

Individual Behaviour Plan commenced

- Recorded on the RHPS – Behaviour Tracker
- RED form stored with the Inclusion Team
- Child excluded from ALL team events / school events 5 days from the issue of the form (Decided by the SLT panel – decision made within 48 hours of the incident)

Serious incident

Internal Exclusion P4 ACTION LEVEL

Following a serious behaviour incident a child may be placed in Internal exclusion, work will be supplied by class teacher and supervision given at all times. Playtimes will not be available at this time, however there will be a reasonable amount of time for a pupil to eat drink and go to the toilet.

The 3rd Internal Exclusion may result in fixed term exclusion.
Individual Behaviour Plan in place (in school interventions)

Persistent Serious Offences OR Very Serious one off offences

Fixed Term External Exclusion P4 ACTION+

-Head teacher to make the decision to exclude a pupil, a contract to be signed by Head teacher, Pupil and Parents on re integration. The SPSF process may be felt necessary at this point. The Head teacher may feel it necessary notify Local Offer Broker (Inclusion Officer) with an invitation to initial SPSF meeting.

-An IYFAP referral may be made. Individual Behaviour Plan to begin to involve outside agencies, BSS/ PRU / Educational Psychologist

Individual Behaviour Plan in place (outside intervention sought)

Permanent Exclusion

After several FTE, pupils who are at risk of permanent exclusion, will be put forward to be discussed at the next IYFAP Meeting. (with a view to alternative provision, involvement with Educational Psychologist or a managed move.)

Inclusion Team Involvement

Additional support provided by the Inclusion team from Phase 3 onwards

Children will be given an Individual Behaviour Plan once 3 forms have been received. The actions, interventions and sanctions will be adjusted accordingly.

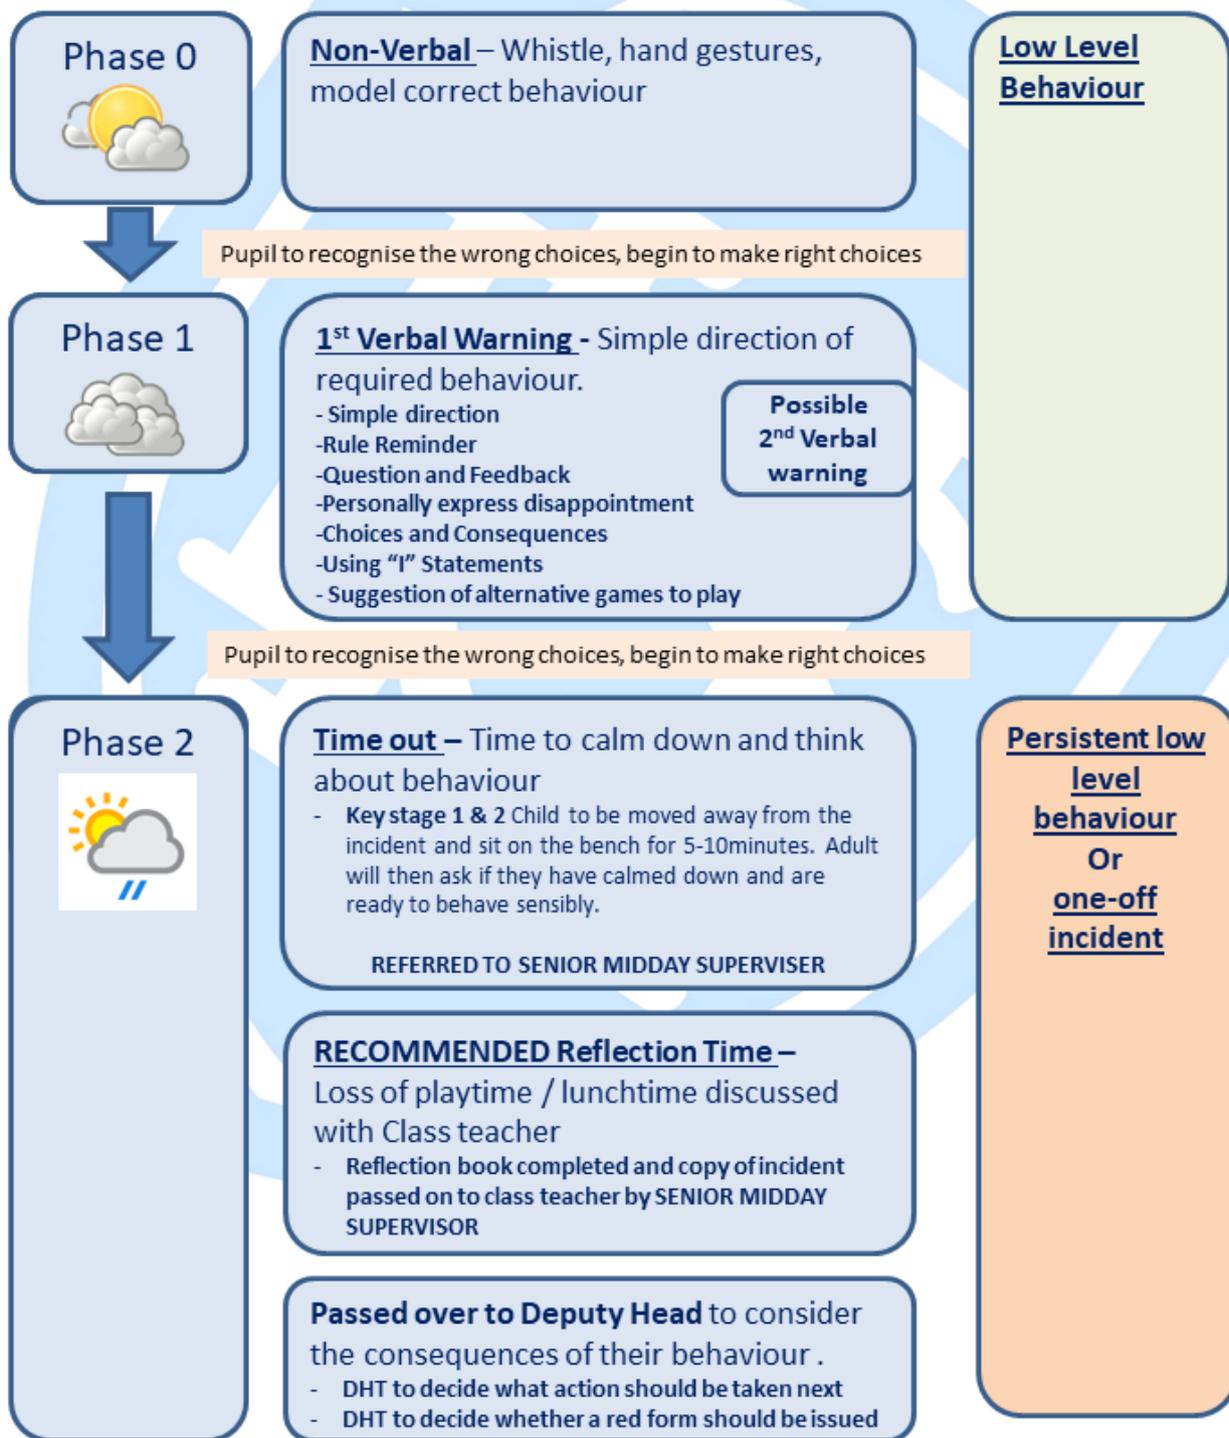

All behaviour plans will align to this document where appropriate e.g. sanctions must be applied in the same way regardless of whether the children are on a plan or not.

Further adjustments that can be made at this time are...

- Lunchtime and playtime adjustments
- Home dinners
- 1:1, group or specific programmes in place
- Adjustments / risk assessments completed
- Bespoke adjustments made to the timetables
- Reduced timetable
- Reduced access to particular lessons

Behaviour Support

The school have a number of strategies for supporting behaviour for learning. The Inclusion Team (Behaviour) are a key part of this process.

Behaviour Support Plan

For children at risk of exclusion or displaying challenging behaviour in class or around the school, the inclusion team will utilise a Behaviour support plan.

What is a Behaviour Support Plan?

A behaviour support plan is a document created to help understand and manage behaviour in children who are at risk of exclusion or are displaying behaviour that others find challenging.

A Behaviour Support Plan provides carers with a step by step guide to making sure the person not only has a great quality of life but also enables adults working around the child to identify when they need to intervene to prevent an episode of challenging behaviour.

The plan contains a range of strategies which not only focus on the challenging behaviour(s) but also include ways to ensure the person has access to things that are important to them.

The strategies used are referred to as:

- Proactive Strategies
- Reactive Strategies.

Proactive strategies are intended to make sure the person has got what they need and want on a day to day basis and also includes ways to teach the person appropriate communication and life skills.

Reactive strategies are designed to keep the person and those around them safe from harm. They provide a way to react quickly in a situation where the person is distressed or anxious and more likely to display challenging behaviour.

A good behaviour support plan has more Proactive strategies than Reactive ones. This helps to ensure that the focus of the plan is not just on the challenging behaviour but provides ways to support the person to have a good life, enabling the person to learn better, more effective ways of getting what they need.

Who is it for?

A behaviour support plan is for individuals who regularly display challenging behaviour to the extent that it severely impacts on their life. For example, it may result in exclusion from school.

A behaviour support plan can be developed and used at any age. The earlier challenging behaviour can be understood and strategies put in place to help reduce the behaviours, the better it is for the person and those caring for them.

Our inclusion team (Behaviour) are able to create and lead these plans.

RHPS - Physical Interventions by staff in school (inc. Safe Touch Policy)

This includes guidance for staff that hitherto has been provided for individual pupils. The value of one policy covering all matters is that parents can see what interventions will be used and the circumstances in which they will be used.

Objectives

In order for a physical intervention to be warranted, staff should believe that immediate action is necessary to prevent:

- a pupil from significantly injuring himself or others
- prevent a pupil leaving the classroom where allowing the pupil to leave would risk their safety or lead to behaviour that disrupts the behaviour of others
- a criminal offence (eg having or using, a weapon or being in possession of drugs) eg search (see end)

Physical intervention should be the absolute last resort and only if the risks are significant.

The school do not believe that physical intervention should be used for the following;

- serious damage to property
- a serious breach of school good order and discipline
- remove disruptive children from the classroom where they have refused to follow an instruction to do so

What is reasonable force?

The term 'reasonable force' covers the broad range of actions used by most teachers at some point in their career that involve a degree of physical contact with pupils. Force is usually used either to control or restrain. This can range from guiding a pupil to safety by the upper arm/elbow through to more extreme circumstances such as breaking up a fight or where a student needs to be restrained to prevent violence or injury.

- 'Reasonable in the circumstances' means using no more force than is needed.
- Control means either passive physical contact, such as standing between pupils or blocking a pupil's path, or active physical contact such as leading a pupil by the upper arm/elbow out of a classroom.
- Restraint means to hold back physically or to bring a pupil under control. It is typically used in more extreme circumstances, for example when two pupils are fighting and refuse to separate without physical intervention.
- School staff should always try to avoid acting in a way that might cause injury, but in extreme cases it may not always be possible to avoid injuring the pupil.

Who can use reasonable force?

All members of school staff have a legal power to use reasonable force. This power applies to any member of staff at the school.

Minimising the need to use force

- Staff should take steps to avoid the need for a restrictive physical intervention, e.g. through dialogue and diversion, allowing space, talking, listening and humouring, cajoling and reasoning, diversion and distraction and, "stop! Moving others away or out of the room is also an option (Govt. guidance; 2010,2011,2012)

- Only the MINIMUM FORCE NECESSARY to prevent physical injury or damage should be used.
- Every effort should be made to secure the presence of other staff before using a RPI. These staff can act as assistants and witnesses. And monitor airways, circulation and well being/emotions.
- As soon as it is safe, intervention should be gradually relaxed to allow the pupil to regain self-control. Intervention should take place calmly but firmly. A place to go which is calm should be known to all staff, with appropriate seating.
- Restraint should be an act of care and control, not punishment
- Physical restraint should never be used purely to force compliance with staff instructions when there is no immediate risk to people or property.
- Social, Emotional Aspects of Learning (SEAL) approaches to teach pupils how to manage conflict and strong feelings will be used throughout the school as part of the schools personal, social, and Health Education teaching.
- If it is unsafe impractical for the adult to intervene physically, the staff member must take action in another way, eg sending a pupil with a message; saying names loudly and “stop”, moving things away to prevent them from being used as weapons; moving other pupils away.
- Where a pupil may require restraint that pupil should already have a plan in place notifying staff that specific interventions may be necessary. Parents/carers will have been involved in the creation of this plan.
Pupils who do not have plans will have one drawn up following an incident. (this is a legal obligation)
- Procedures and interventions will be reviewed (and changed) every term at least.
- Interventions must be age appropriate and will change and minimize over the life of a plan.

Staff authorised to use RPI

All staff who are Team Teach trained and whose certification is current are authorised to use a proportionately restrictive physical intervention where they have ascertained that to do so is reasonable, necessary and in the best interests of the pupil concerned. The key question in this instance is, ‘What would make this pupil safe?’

Any adult working with pupils in this school or on an official trip where they have responsibility for the pupils’s safety must intervene to keep a pupil or pupils safe. They must use their best judgment to determine what this intervention should be, and whether it needs to be physical. (NB: Personal Safety courses can help to inform support staff and parents working regularly in the school about their options and responsibilities.)

In any incidence where restraint is used the incident must be immediately reported to the Deputy Head or Headteacher so that it can be correctly recorded. Contact for control does not need to be recorded but maybe as part of a behaviour plan for a pupil.

This policy is evidence of the use of temporary or permanent authorization to use force to restrain a pupil.

Operational procedural points relating to the use of physical restraint

- The age and social competence of the pupil should be taken into consideration when deciding what kind of intervention is necessary. Staff therefore need to know and be prepared to use a hierarchy of responses and techniques, rather than relying on a one size fits all approach.
- Holds should only be carried out by suitably trained adults, as it is frightening for a pupil to be held by somebody who is inflicting pain through ignorance (or being instructed in situ) and this can lead to serious injury for the pupil and adults concerned. Inflicting pain is illegal (see above) and will usually escalate the situation.

- It is important to use only the reasonable force necessary to achieve the desired result. Restraint is carried out as an act of care and to make the pupil feel safe, whilst restricting their mobility and choices. Relax and disengage as soon as safe.
- Attending staff if not leading must monitor the pupil's breathing, circulation and well-being throughout and comment on this for the incident report.* see Reporting and recording, below.
- Using an attending member of staff to 'change face' helps to calm the pupil and is always preferable to one adult 'seeing a situation through to the end'. It also helps in recovering the lead staff's working relationship with the pupil, afterwards.
- A discussion with the pupil about what happened and why the intervention was necessary will be carried out some time after they have calmed down from the whole incident. Restraining and attending staff will concentrate on helping the pupil to calm down and be very quiet and soothing in their presence.
- No pupil will ever be left 'to calm down' in a space where they cannot be seen by a member of staff. Pupils in any stage of an incident involving restraint must be monitored and seen at all times.
- If the pupil can return (escorted) to class and be reintegrated quietly, this is preferable to spending hours reliving the incident.
- A Restorative and reflective conversation with a key qualified staff member will help the pupil if it is held later in the day after some normality has been resumed. The pupil's POV is very important and so is the learning about what happened and what they can take forward, especially as we are trying to reduce the necessity for RPIs.
- This meeting ideally will include the lead staff member coming in after a time to hear what the pupil has decided to say to them and rebuild their relationship.
- A sanction may be discussed but does not automatically happen following a restraint. If the pupil can think of a way of 'making this better', that is much more effective. Anything they could think of around improving the relationships (including their own responses) would be excellent, as that is the learning area.

Reporting, recording and subsequent meetings with staff and parents/carers.

The school does not have to report the use of contact for control. The school must always report the use of a restrictive physical intervention for the purpose of restraint. Our reporting and recording procedures are governed by our legal obligations and additionally, by best practice guidelines from the DFE, Team Teach and the British Institute of Learning Disabilities (BILD).

For clarity we reiterate the techniques used in school:

Contact: guide away, turn and guide away, guiding an arm/hand/leg away, disengagement. All staff contact using our hands is kept to using a specific technique of Caring Cs, which is neither a hold nor a grip.

- Staff using this form of restrictive physical intervention are asked to keep a personal record of who they have had to physically intervene to control, in what way, where and when. This data is collected on a weekly basis to inform us of changes in the behaviour of individual pupils and as an early indicator of issues arising.
- Parents/carers will be informed of this form of contact having to be made more than once in a school day or over a week. (Best practice - same for LAC.)
- A Positive Handling Plan will be drawn up and /or reviewed for this new issue as a result of more than one physical interventions for control being recorded over a week.
- Pupils who already have Plans will be monitored in the same way and the data added to the information on their existing record, to inform the next review.

- Sanctions are not automatic as the reason for intervention may have more to do with an emotional situation rather than being a disciplinary issue.

After the incident – Staff issues and reporting on to other agencies.

The lead staff member will be supported by help to talk through the incident on the day, with a staff friend. The report will be completed on the following day and the lead member of staff will need quiet time and space to do this.

The HT will collect statements from attending staff to add to the report and include any comments from the pupil concerned. A copy of the pupil's Plan, any other supporting documentation and this Policy will be appended to the report.

The report will be copied to parents/carers, the LA and may be referred to school Governors if they have expressed this preference as part of their own advisory/supervisory role.

The report will be flagged and if necessary copied to agencies directly working with the pupil concerned. Where it is clear that member(s) of staff need further advice, support, guidance or training, the HT will take immediate steps to see that this is provided.

Telling parents when force has been used on their child.

The Inclusion Support Manager or a member of the Senior Leadership Team will speak to parents about serious incidents involving the use of force and the incident will be recorded on the child's Individual Behaviour Chronology

In deciding what is a serious incident, teachers should use their professional judgement and also consider the following:

- the pupil's behaviour and level of risk presented at the time of the incident
- the degree of force used
- the effect on the pupil or member of staff
- the child's age

What happens if a pupil complains when force is used on them?

All complaints about the use of force will be thoroughly, speedily and appropriately investigated.

Where a member of staff has acted within the law – that is, they have used reasonable force in order to prevent injury, damage to property or disorder – this will provide a defence to any criminal prosecution or other civil or public law action.

When a complaint is made the onus is on the person making the complaint to prove that his/her allegations are true – it is not for the member of staff to show that he/she has acted reasonably.

Suspension will not be an automatic response when a member of staff has been accused of using excessive force. School will refer to the "Dealing with Allegations of Abuse against Teachers and Other Staff" guidance where an allegation of using excessive force is made against a teacher. This guidance makes clear that a person must not be suspended automatically, or without careful thought.

School will consider carefully whether the circumstances of the case warrant a person being suspended until the allegation is resolved or whether alternative arrangements are more appropriate.

If a decision is taken to suspend a teacher, the school will ensure that the teacher has access to a named contact that can provide support.

The Governing body should always consider whether a teacher has acted within the law when reaching a decision on whether or not to take disciplinary action against the teacher. As employers, schools and local authorities have a duty of care towards their employees. School will provide appropriate pastoral care to any member of staff who is subject to a formal allegation following a use of force incident.

Staff Training and Support

Rushmere Hall staff keep up to date with the School SAFE website and videos of RPI techniques.

Safe Touch Policy

Rationale

Children learn who they are and how the world is, by forming relationships with people and things around them. The quality of a child's relationship with significant adults is vital to their healthy development and emotional health and wellbeing.

Many of the pupils who require emotional support from school may have been subject to trauma or distress or may not have had a positive start in life. It is with this in mind that staff seek to respond to children's developmental needs by using appropriate safe touch.

Our policy takes into account the extensive neurobiological research and studies relating to attachment theory and child development that identify safe touch as a positive contribution to brain development, mental health and the development of social skills. We have adopted an informed, evidence based decision to allow safe touch as a developmentally appropriate intervention that will aid healthy growth and learning.

Our policy rests on the belief that every member of staff needs to know the difference between appropriate and inappropriate touch. Hence, staff need to demonstrate a clear understanding of the difference as well as following the very clear guidance about what is appropriate in order to protect the children of the school.

Different types of touch

There are three different types of touch and physical contact that may be used, these are:

1. Casual / informal / incidental touch

Staff use touch with pupils as part of a normal relationship, for example comforting a child, giving reassurance and congratulating. This might include putting an arm out to bar an exit from a room, taking a child by the hand, patting on the back or putting an arm around the shoulders. The benefit of this action is often proactive and can prevent a situation from escalating.

2. General reparative touch

This is used by staff working with children who are having difficulties with their emotions. Healthy emotional development requires safe touch as a means of calming, soothing and containing distress for a frightened, angry or sad child. Touch used to regulate a child's emotions triggers the release of the calming chemical oxytocin in the body. Reparative touch may include stroking a back, squeezing an arm, rocking gently, cuddling, tickling or sitting on an adults' lap, hand or foot massage. Often appropriate with SEN pupils with sensory needs or children with challenging behaviours.

3. Positive handling (calming a dysregulating child)

Staff may use force as is reasonable in all the circumstances in order to prevent a pupil from doing, or continuing to do, any of the following:

See Positive Handling policy.

Key guidance for safe touch

- Ensure that any form of touch is witnessed and in clear view of other staff members and is in a public part of the school (e.g a classroom)
- Ensure other staff members are clear what you are doing and why
- End safe touch if the child is not responding in a positive way

- If used regularly, double check with external professionals that this is considered an appropriate response to specific situations
- Cross check with Senior Members of staff for clarity on what is appropriate and not appropriate if you are unsure
- Male members of staff should avoid using safe touch with any pupils (except for Physical Restraint)
- Staff to consider whether children in year groups above Year 5 is appropriate.

RHPS – Dealing with Prejudice Related Incidents Policy

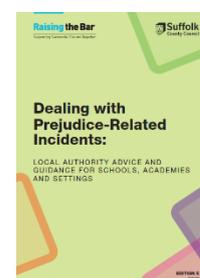

Our vision is that every child, young person and adult in Suffolk can belong to a school community free of fear, harassment and intimidation; a community which shares and celebrates positive values of mutual care, responsibility and respect. We want all children and young people to feel protected and supported to achieve that of which they are capable.

Key element of our Prejudice Related Incidents procedures:

- All pupils are entitled to an education, which respects and values their identity, individuality and background and is free from prejudice, harassment and adverse discrimination
- Prejudice-related bullying prevents children from learning and could be a significant barrier to their achievement
- Prejudice-related bullying impacts on social and emotional well-being
- Strategies for dealing with discrimination are linked to the school's behaviour and anti-bullying policy
- All staff, pupils, parents and carers should be aware of the school's policy and procedures for dealing with prejudice-related incidents
- All allegations of prejudice-related incidents should be taken seriously and investigated thoroughly
- Schools should keep parents, carers and victims informed during an investigation and advise them of any action that is taken. This should be discussed sensitively with the child or young person beforehand
- All prejudice-related incidents are recorded and held on file in the school. Incidents are monitored by the Head teacher and Family liaison manager.

A prejudiced-related incident is any incident which is perceived by the victim, or any other person, to be prejudiced towards an individual, due to one or more of the protected characteristics of age, disability, faith, gender identity/reassignment, marriage and civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity status, race, sex or sexual orientation.

This policy is based on the Suffolk County Council guidance. Additional proformas are used from that document including letters for victims and perpetrators and recording charts for tracking the incidents that have occurred at school.

Examples of Prejudice Related incidents

Homophobic

A homophobic incident is motivated by prejudice against pupils or adults who are:

- lesbian, gay or bisexual (LGB)
- thought to be lesbian, gay or bisexual
- known not to be lesbian, gay or bisexual but are called that as a form of bullying
- different in some way from a prevailing stereotype of how a boy or girl should look or behave
- have friends, family members, parents or carers who are lesbian, gay or bisexual

www.stonewall.org.uk

Sexist

Sexist and sexual bullying affects both genders. Boys may be victims as well as girls, and both sexes may be victims of their own gender.

Sexual bullying may be characterised by:

- name-calling, comments
- overt 'looks' about appearance
- attractiveness and emerging puberty
- uninvited touching
- innuendos and propositions
- pornographic imagery or graffiti

www.equalityhumanrights.com

Gender Reassignment

Pupils and adults identifying as transgender or experiencing gender dysphoria (feeling that they belong to another gender or that they do not conform with the gender role prescribed to them) can be targeted by bullies. This is not the same as a homophobic-related incident.

www.stonewall.org.uk

Disabilist

"Disabilist incident is motivated by prejudice against pupils or adults who have a "physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities". "The Duty to Promote Disability Equality: Statutory Code of Practice (2005)".

There is a growing amount of research literature on disabilist incidents among children with disabilities and Special Educational Needs.

Racist

'A racist incident is any incident which is perceived to be racist by the victim or any other person.'

Stephen Lawrence Inquiry Report Sir William Macpherson, 1999

'Racist bullying refers to a range of hurtful behaviour both physical and psychological, that makes a person feel unwelcomed, marginalised, excluded, powerless or worthless because of their colour, ethnicity, culture, faith community, national origin or national status'.

Safe to Learn: Bullying around Race, Religion and Culture DCSF, 2008

Institutional Racism is a collective failure of an organisation to provide an appropriate and professional service to people because of their colour, culture or ethnic origin. It can be seen or detected in processes, attitudes and behaviour, which amounts to discrimination through unwitting prejudice, ignorance, thoughtlessness and racist stereotyping which disadvantages minority ethnic people.

Stephen Lawrence Inquiry Report Sir William Macpherson, 1999

www.srtrc.org

Religion and Belief

Religion and belief includes major faiths such as Christianity, Islam and Judaism as well as a lack of belief. Sometimes religious based incidents are reported as racist, for example incidents directed at Muslims or Sikhs of Asian origin, because the child is perceived as different not only by their religious clothing but also their skin colour or family heritage. As with racism, religious based bullying and incidents can have similar impacts on a victim's sense of identity and belonging.

Pregnancy and Maternity

"Pregnancy is the condition of being pregnant or expecting a baby. Maternity refers to the period after the birth, and is linked to maternity leave in the employment context. In the non-work context, protection against maternity discrimination is for 26 weeks after giving birth, and this includes treating a woman unfavourably because she is breastfeeding".

www.equalityhumanrights.com

Types of Behaviours

Verbal (Name-Calling, Taunting, Mocking)

This covers name-calling, insults, threats and prejudice-related 'jokes'; and incitement of others to behave in a prejudiced way. It also includes ridicule of a person's appearance, speech, background, religion, culture; the regular use, consciously or unconsciously of offensive and discriminatory language. An example of this would be the 'casual' use of homophobic language such as the use of gay to mean stupid. Staff should challenge the derogatory use of the word gay in this way.

Written

This includes offensive writing, drawings, emails and text messages as well as items posted on the web, including social networking sites.

Graffiti

This includes offensive writing and drawings in public places such as walls, desks, and toilets.

Physical

This includes a range of violent actions involving hitting, kicking, and the use of weapons, pushing, shoving or tripping someone.

Intimidation/coercion

This includes making fun of children and adults, offensive gestures, mimicry, intimidating body language and obstruction, for example when entering a school classroom or within the school environment, as well as making someone do or say something against their will.

Extortion

Extortion specifically relates to forcing someone to give up something they own, or have in their custody, such as money, personal possessions or school property.

Taking of or damage to possessions

This includes deliberately damaging or breaking a person's property, spoiling or destroying a piece of work, hiding a pupil's bag, pens, shoes and other personal property or the school's property that is in the possession of or being used by the victim.

Deliberately excluding

This includes a refusal to sit next to or work with another child, for example, in working groups, lunchtime queues, and playground activities.

Incitement

This includes spreading rumours, encouraging others to participate, wearing of specific badges or T-shirts, carrying slogans, bringing discriminatory literature into school or attempting to recruit others to organisations and groups that promote any form of prejudice.

Spreading rumours

The spreading of rumours and/or malicious gossip, particularly with the intention of causing hurt to those named in the rumours.

Cyber (email, internet, text)

Cyber bullying is the use of Information Communications Technology (ICT), particularly mobile phones and social media, deliberately to upset someone else. (As such, technology is often the vehicle for the bullying, and therefore spreading rumours, for example, may be done via the internet, and would therefore be both 'Spreading rumours' and 'Cyber.' (Cyberbullying, DCSF-00685-2007).

Mate Crime

The exploitation, abuse or theft from any vulnerable person by those they consider to be their friend.

Responding to Prejudice Incidents

At Rushmere Hall we consider four issues when responding to prejudice related incidents:

- Challenging those responsible
- Supporting the victim and perpetrator
- Reporting what has happened to the right people
- Monitor to avoid repetition

The aim is not only to respond appropriately to incidents as they happen, but to try to make sure further incidents do not occur.

Report, support, monitor and challenge is the cyclical process that is regularly discussed so that all staff and pupils are aware that:

- prejudice of any sort will be challenged
- support is available for all involved – victims, perpetrators, families, Headteacher, teachers and Governors
- any incident will be reported, recorded, responded to and monitored.

The 4Rs Approach to Responding

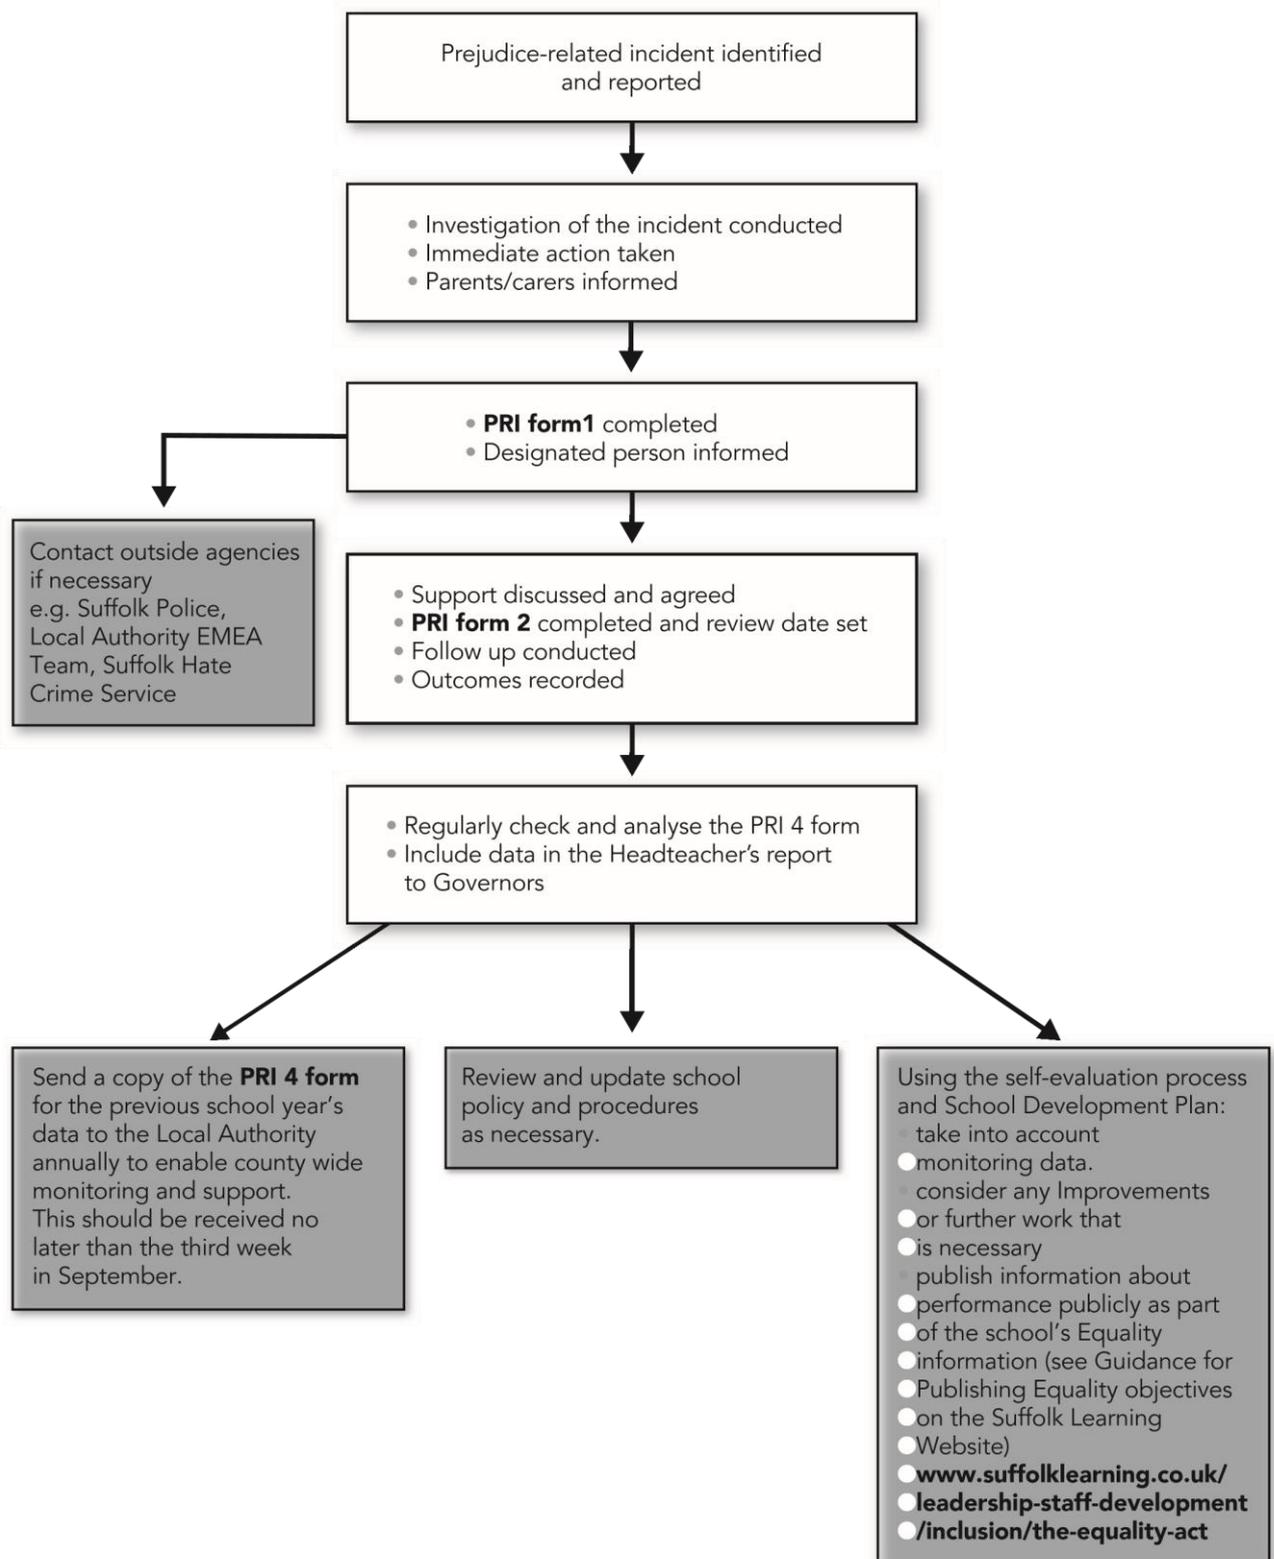

RECOGNISE – identify that an incident has occurred

RESPONSIBILITY TO RESPOND – take responsibility for responding according to policy

RECORD – complete monitoring log according to school / LA guidelines

REPORT – share information about the incident with relevant people and agencies.

RHPS Bullying Policy

Rationale

The school recognizes that bullying is damaging to a child's sense of self and wellbeing. Rushmere Hall Primary School aims to create a climate in which children feel safe and valued.

It is the responsibility of the Head teacher and staff to create a positive ethos and implement measures to prevent bullying within the school.

This policy outlines the underlying philosophy, purpose, nature, organisation and management of pupil behaviour at Rushmere Hall Primary School. It is a working document designed to enhance the development of positive relationships between children, adults working in schools, parents and other members of the wider school community.

Children have contributed to the behaviour policy through their involvement in the development of the school's general rules.

Aims

The aim of Rushmere Hall Primary School is for every member of the school community to feel valued and respected, and for all persons to be treated fairly. We are a caring community, whose values are built on mutual trust and respect. The school's Behaviour Policy is therefore designed to support the way in which the members of the school can live and work together in a supportive way. It aims to promote an environment where all feel happy, safe and secure.

The primary aim of the behaviour policy, however, is not a system to enforce rules but rather to promote good relationships, so that people can work together with the common purpose of helping everyone to learn.

Rushmere Hall Primary School does not tolerate bullying of any kind. If we discover that an act of bullying or intimidation has taken place, the incident is recorded and we act immediately to stop any further occurrences of such behaviour. We do everything in our power to ensure that all children attend school free from fear.

Expectations

At Rushmere Hall Primary School we will:

- As adults treat each other with respect at all times, therefore providing a positive role model for the children and each other.
- Support the way in which all members of this school community can live and work together in an environment that is happy, safe and secure and where effective learning can take place.
 - Reward good behaviour.
 - Provide encouragement and stimulation to all pupils.
 - Treat all children fairly and apply this policy in a consistent way.
 - Ensure that children are aware of the school rules and that each class has its own classroom code.

- Teach, through the school curriculum, values and attitudes as well as knowledge and skills, in order to promote responsible behaviour, self-discipline and respect for self, others and the world around us.

The key features of the school's policy include:

- Early intervention. Recording of incidents.
- Communication and partnership with parents.
- Communication between staff.
- Involvement and understanding of pupils.
- PSHE discussion in order that children understand the meaning of the term, 'Bullying' and know how to respond to difficulties.
- PHSE days.

Definition of Bullying

Bullying is a wilful, conscious desire to hurt or intimidate another person. Bullying is a deliberate action taken by one or more children and is repeated over a period of time. The victims of bullying find it difficult to defend themselves, they feel powerless.

Bullying behaviour can be:

- Physical: Hurting others by any form of physical contact e.g. hitting, kicking, pushing.
- Verbal : Name calling, teasing and insulting another.
- Indirect: Spreading malicious rumours.
- Emotional Threats and extortion: Being unfriendly and excluding others from social activities. Humiliating others.
- Interference with personal property: Hiding, damaging and taking belongings without permission.
- Racial Harassment: Verbal abuse by name calling, racist jokes. Refusing to co-operate in work or play activities with someone from a different race.
- Cultural, Religious, Sexual/sexist, Homophobic Harassment
- Disability discrimination
- Cyber bullying: Malicious use of social websites, mobile phone use and text messaging, photographs and e-mail SEE RHPS CYBER BULLYING POLICY

Signs of Bullying

Families are often the first to detect signs that their child is being bullied or is bullying others. Changes in behaviour can indicate a problem. Common symptoms of being bullied include headaches, stomach aches, anxiety, irritability, lack of concentration, low self-esteem, depression wetting, reluctance to go out to play, reluctance to participate in activities. Bullying can cause serious psychological damage.

Victims of bullying may be reluctant to come to school.

Any child can become a victim of bullying, though certain factors can make bullying more likely:

- Lacking friends.
- Being shy.
- Being from a different racial or ethnic group.
- Being different in some respect e.g. having special needs either physically or academically, being different in appearance e.g. small for age. Parents being viewed as different.
- Behaving inappropriately.
- Possessing expensive accessories.
- Lack of expensive accessories.
- Poor personal hygiene.

School Strategies

- Pupils are given information about bullying through the PSHE programme:
 - What is bullying?
 - How do I deal with bullying?
- Pupils discuss issues associated with bullying during PSHE lessons.
 - Bullying behaviour is unacceptable not the person perpetrating it.
 - Pupils are encouraged to support victims of bullying.
 - Circle time and drama scenarios raise awareness and possible action.
- Pupils are given information about the school's bullying policy, which is reinforced in assemblies and at other times by class teachers:
 - Bullying will not be tolerated.
 - Pupils must tell someone about incidents of bullying (ideally straight after the incident – as addressing incidents that are weeks and months old is very difficult)
 - Action which will be taken in cases of bullying.
- Assemblies, projects, drama, stories, literature, historical and current events are used to highlight the anti-bullying policy.
- Statements about the school's position on bullying are clearly displayed around the school / in classrooms.
- Pupils are encouraged to confide in someone they trust.
- Designated teachers and lunchtime supervisors are trained to help pupils who are being bullied.
- Parents are given information regarding the school anti-bullying policy.
- Pupils are listened to.
- Outdoor play areas provide opportunities for play and quieter activities.
- Key areas of the school are well-supervised.
- The peer mediator system supports younger pupils during play times and those who do not mix easily with peers.
- Poor behaviour is recorded using our recording sheets. Serious incidents are dealt with directly by the SLT.
- Co-operative group work is incorporated into class lessons.
- Links with outside agencies e.g. community police.
- Raising staff awareness through training and taking action based upon reported incidents to reduce future difficulties.

Our whole school approach includes a range of strategies adapted to suit particular incidents, including:

- Ensuring that the whole school understands what bullying actually means, including what a bully is, what a victim is and what a bystander is
- Making clear that a zero tolerance approach to bullying is in place in school
- Encouraging children to report incidents without feeling they are telling tales
- Incidents are taken seriously, investigated and if necessary, acted upon, with clearly defined procedures.
- Making sure the term bullying is not misused

We use the following strategies to ensure a positive ethos in which children feel secure to report incidents of bullying immediately:

- A behaviour policy for pupils and staff setting out clear guidelines for managing pupil behaviour both in the playground and in the classroom
- Whole school assemblies – to raise awareness of bullying issues and providing a whole school focus for anti-bullying activities
- Activities within the PSHE programme specifically aimed at developing children’s own strategies to deal with bullying type behaviour
- Providing a variety of activities/equipment for pupils to play with during school breaks

Procedures For Staff

The following steps may be taken when dealing with incidents (on most occasions the school will follow the procedure in the appendix):

- ✓ If bullying is suspected or reported, the member of staff that has been approached will deal with the incident immediately.
- ✓ Staff will make sure the victim(s) is reassured and feels safe
- ✓ Staff will listen and speak to all children involved about the incident separately
- ✓ The problem will be identified and possible solutions suggested
- ✓ Staff will encourage a problem solving approach which will move children on from having to justify their behaviour – this may take the form of a group meeting to reconcile pupils
- ✓ Staff will reinforce the message that bullying behaviour is not tolerated at Rushmere Hall Primary
- ✓ Appropriate action will be taken quickly to end the behaviour
- ✓ Sanctions deemed appropriate will be applied
- ✓ If possible, the pupils will be reconciled
- ✓ If necessary, support will also be given to the bully (bullies) to help them understand and change his/her behaviour
- ✓ A member of the Senior Management Team will be informed of the incident and the action taken where appropriate.
- ✓ In a case of bullying, the incident will be recorded on the schools BULLYING form LOG.
- ✓ In serious cases, parents will be informed and will be invited to come in and discuss the problem.
- ✓ After the incident has been investigated and dealt with, each case will be monitored to ensure a successful outcome
- ✓ The Head teacher will be informed of all incidents, if not already involved.

Strategies in Early Years

- Circle Times.
- Role modelling appropriate behaviour.
- Puppets,
- Whole year group discussions (e.g. reception)
- Recognition of individual needs and addressing same.

- Use of resources (e.g. Naughty Stories Oxford reading Trees books).
- Small group sizes with close pastoral support. Use of key workers in kindergarten.
- Exploring emotions in shared time.
- Golden Rules. Visual prompts ensure whole class is participating and upholding values and Golden Rules.
- Appropriate and early intervention.
- Record keeping. Daily diary records updated by all staff. Logging in individual child records of incidents and observations.
- Communication with parents.

Action

When incidents of bullying are reported to a member of staff they must be investigated immediately:

- Class teacher will initially deal with the situation. They will talk to the pupils concerned. Often the person responsible for bullying needs help to understand the effects of their behaviour – he/she may be experiencing difficulties, or may be or have been a victim of bullying. They may need help or counselling.
- A victim of bullying needs support and counselling
- Facts must be established and incidents recorded.
- The class teacher will monitor the situation closely and inform other staff who are in contact with the pupils about concerns.
- Parents will be consulted if incidents recur.

If bullying behaviour is established the following sanctions can be applied to that pupil:

- A verbal warning
- Withdrawal of a privilege or removing from situation where bullying occurred e.g. missing playtime.
- Removal from school teams or opportunities to represent the school.
- Reporting to Class Teacher, SLT or Headteacher.
- Involvement of parents and formal meeting arranged.
- Behaviour action plan
- Programme agreed with specified targets for improved behaviour. Support offered within a relevant time scale with regular reviews.
- Temporary or permanent exclusion if sanctions and counselling have not been effective.

APPENDIX 1 - Positive Classroom Strategies

Silent Signals

At Rushmere Hall we have a set of silent signals that have been established for use across the whole school:

1. Getting pupils attention

The teacher will stand in a confident manner, place one hand up, palm facing the class and then wait for the class to fall silent.

Pupils will notice the silent hand signal and respond by:

- turning to face the teacher
- ceasing the activity and stopping any talk
- putting their hand up to show they have heard
- silently and gently making any nearby classmates aware of the silent signal

The teacher will insist that every pupil has engaged with the silent stop signal before giving the next instruction or teaching point.

2. 1-2-3

When pupils move around the classroom they follow the following steps in silence. To indicate the number, the teacher will display the appropriate number of fingers:

1. Pupils stand behind their chairs
2. Pupils move silently and carefully to the next activity/station
3. Pupils sit down

3. My Turn Your Turn (MTYT)

When the teacher places their hand on their chest (points to themselves) it indicates the teacher should be talking and no one else

When the teacher then extends their hand out to the class, it is their turn to give a choral response.

4. Turn to your partner (TTYP)

The teacher (standing up) places the fingertips of each hand so they are facing the class.

The hands are then brought together so the fingertips touch (like closing a gate)

This indicates it is time for partners to turn and talk to each other about the activity/objective

This signal can be used in conjunction with the MTYT

APPENDIX 2 - Checklist for teachers

Classroom

- Know the names and roles of any adults in class.
- Meet and greet pupils when they come into the classroom.
- Display rules in the class - and ensure that the pupils and staff know what they are.
- Display the flowchart of sanctions in class.
- Have a system in place to follow through with all sanctions.
- Display what rewards are available in class.
- Have a system in place to follow through with all rewards.
- Have a visual timetable on the wall.
- Follow the school behaviour policy.

Pupils

- Know the names of children.
- Have a plan for children who are likely to misbehave.
- Ensure other adults in the class know the plan.
- Understand pupils' special needs.

Teaching

- Ensure that all resources are prepared in advance.
- Praise the behaviour you want to see more of.
- Praise children doing the right thing more than criticising those who are doing the wrong thing (parallel praise).
- Differentiate.
- Stay calm.
- Have clear routines for transitions and for stopping the class.
- Teach children the class routines.

Parents

- Give feedback to parents about their child's behaviour - let them know about the good days as well as the bad ones.

Professional Persona

- Know, understand and live out the school's vision, values and ethos through daily actions
- Model a positive and cheerful attitude around the school: actively greeting colleagues and children in the corridors, make eye contact when speaking to others
- Be proactive in suggesting and researching possible solutions to any issues or problems that arise
- Develop effective positive relationships with colleagues, knowing how and when to draw on advice and specialist support
- Acknowledge and respond appropriately to communications, emails and requests from colleagues and parents
- Meet professional deadlines and proactively speak to line manager if there is an issue with expectations
- Display an awareness and sensitivity to others and the demands and pressures they may be under – refer concerns/observations to line manager if appropriate
- Communicate effectively with parents
- Be self-aware and able to proactively take measures that help to provide a work/life balance
- Have a proactive and positive attitude to CPD and use PPA time effectively to prepare for teaching and develop awareness of teaching across the school

APPENDIX 3 - Responding to inappropriate behaviour

Least to most intrusive consequences

We need to plan how to respond to, or divert, children's inappropriate behaviour in order to prevent it escalating into something more disruptive to learning and more difficult to manage. The adult chooses the intervention on the basis of what will be the least intrusive in terms of disrupting the learning and also on the basis of their knowledge of the individual child. What works for one child will not work for all, so adults need a range of interventions on which to draw.

NON-VERBAL MESSAGES (THESE ARE CHANCES FOR THE CHILD TO REDRESS THEIR BEHAVIOUR)

Gestures and Movements

- The Look, moving closer to the child who is not behaving appropriately, visual prompts such as fingers to lips etc.

Praise someone near to the child for displaying the appropriate behaviour

- For example, 'Thank you, Alex, you're sitting with your board down and looking this way.'

Tactical or planned ignoring

- The teacher decides temporarily not to notice specific behaviour from a specific child. The class will all be aware that the behaviour will be discussed with the child later, at an appropriate time.

Description of reality

- A simple statement of fact describing the inappropriate behaviour. This is a calm statement of what is happening and will often end the inappropriate behaviour there and then.

VERBAL MESSAGES (THESE MAY TAKE YOU ONTO VERBAL WARNINGS AND STRIKES)

Simple direction

- Clear statement of required behaviour. Use of 'thank you' rather than 'please' to subtly show that you expect children to do as you have asked.

Rule reminder

- Restate the relevant rule.

Question and feedback

- Asking a prompt question to show that you have noticed inappropriate behaviour.
- "What's happening here?"

Expressing disappointment or disapproval

- Avoid sarcasm, humiliation or belittling comments to the child or about the child in their presence.

Blocking or assertive statements

- You can use a 'broken record' technique where you repeat the instruction until the child complies. "Sam, put your pen down.....put your pen down.....Sam put your pen down, thank you." Or if there is resistance to argument, acknowledging the child's point of view but reiterating your instruction can be effective. "Sam put your pen down, thank you. I understand that you have not finished but I need you to put your pen down now and listen, then we can talk about when you can finish"

Choices and consequences

- Enabling a child to take responsibility for his/her own actions. “Miriam I have asked you to move away from Miya. If you continue to sit there you are choosing to stay in at playtime. It’s your choice.” The adult then moves away to give the child thinking or “take-up time” before using the consequences if they continue to behave inappropriately.

Using ‘I’ messages

- The use of ‘I need you to...’
- For example: “When you keep interrupting I feel really disappointed because we won’t be able to finish on time. I need you to be quiet and listen carefully. Thank you.”

Remember

- Allow ‘take-up time’ and do not always expect immediate compliance (so pupils do not lose face in front of their peers).
- Notice as soon as the child begins to behave appropriately and give positive feedback. “Josh, you’re listening really well” or give non verbal feedback such as a thumbs up.
- Speak in a calm, controlled voice, not raising the volume, and refuse to be drawn into argument.
- Negotiate an outcome you can live with, such as “Well I’d like to see at least three sentences written by.....”
- Have a quiet word with the child, rather than a public lecture.
- Refer to the behaviour you require rather than what you don’t want.
- Using gentle humour, but not sarcasm.

TIME OUT

- When a child has ignored the nonverbal messages given then a teacher should issue a verbal warning reminding the child of the rule they have broken.
- A second verbal reminder equates to Strike One – recorded on board for child to see
- In KS1 the child is sent to a quiet area of the room (usually the reading/carpet area) to calm down and think about what they should do. This should always be used with firm calmness by the teacher.
- If the child continues to behave in an unsafe way, is repeatedly distracting or disrespectful they will be told to go to a pre-agreed classroom, away from their peers. In KS2 this may be your first action for Time Out
- Time out must always involve adult supervision and the problem recorded.
- If the behaviour continues, follow ‘warning and strike’ protocol (below)

INVOLVEMENT OF INCLUSION TEAM

- If all of the above do not have the desired impact – the following can be used. (Before using this option staff need to be sure that they have been consistent with the policy and the procedures above. By calling for back up – staff are indicating to the child that they no longer have the power to modify this child’s behaviour. Staff need to think very carefully about using this approach.
- If the child has ignored 2 verbal warnings, is displaying behaviour that poses a risk or is persistently disrupting the teaching and learning of others, a radio call will be made to the Inclusion Team for help.
If the child continues to disrupt, the class teacher might escort the rest of the class out of the room to another area. This is in preference for the child having an audience to feed on.

- The main aim is to provide a chance for the child to calm down BUT ultimately to remain in the classroom. The inclusions team will stay close to the classroom with a view that once calm they will help integrate them into the classroom.
- Only in extreme circumstances will the child be removed from the immediate vicinity and be escorted to the Inclusion room.

APPENDIX 4 – Consequences for Serious Behaviour

Internal Exclusions

These can follow serious behaviour incidents (see Behaviour Flow Chart) and can be a step before a Fixed Term Exclusion (FTE) is issued.

When a serious incident occurs, a child may be immediately placed in internal exclusion. Work will be supplied by the class teacher and supervision given at all times. Staff will allow reasonable time for the pupil to eat, drink and use the toilet. Playtimes are withdrawn and the child is expected to complete the work set. Parents will be notified (by the Inclusion Support Manager) when their child has been placed in Internal Exclusion and a meeting set up with the head teacher or SLT member to discuss their child's behaviour. Situations that will be considered for Internal Exclusion might be

- Rudeness to an adult
- Exiting the classroom
- Violence/verbal threats to other pupils
- Deliberate vandalism
- Refusal

The third Internal Exclusion may result in a Fixed Term Exclusion.

Refusals

Refusals will be followed by an automatic one-day internal exclusion. Behaviours that will be deemed a refusal situation are

- Walking away from a teacher who is addressing them
- Arguing with a teacher – if the child disagrees with the punishment, they will have the opportunity to voice their opinion when they attend the break time
- Turning away and ignoring the teacher when being disciplined
- Actual verbal refusal to carry out a teachers' instructions.

Fixed Term Exclusions

- The head teacher decides whether to exclude a pupil, for a fixed term or permanently, taking into account all the circumstances, the evidence available and the need to balance the interest of the pupil against those of the whole school. Parents have the right to make representations to the governing body about an exclusion and the governing body must review the exclusion in certain circumstances, which include all permanent exclusions. Where a governing body upholds a permanent exclusion parents have the right to appeal the decision to an independent review panel.
- FTEs will initiate the setting up of an SPSF (Suffolk Pupil Support framework) and the head teacher will notify the Local Offer Brokers (Inclusion Officers) and invite them to the initial SPSF meeting
- Children who have had several FTEs and who are at risk of Permanent Exclusion will be discussed at the next IYFAP meeting (with a view to placement within alternative provision, involvement of an Educational Psychologist or a managed move)

Confiscation of inappropriate items

There are two sets of legal provisions which enable school staff to confiscate items from pupils:

1. The general power to discipline enables a member of staff to confiscate, retain or dispose of a pupils' property.
2. Power to search without consent for 'prohibited items' including any article that has been or is likely to be used to commit an offence, cause personal injury or damage to property or any item which has been banned by the school.

APPENDIX 5 – Repairing

REFLECTION, REBUILDING AND REPAIRING

When everyone involved has had an opportunity to calm down, time must be spent on repairing and rebuilding relationships with all those involved. The focus must be restoring any harm done, and using the incident primarily as a “teachable moment.”

- The ‘Saying Sorry’ sheet could be used to construct an apology using a Letter of Apology template (appropriate to the child’s ability)
- Use could be made of the key restorative questions. Children will be brought together with an adult acting as the facilitator for the conversation.
 1. What has happened?
 2. What were you thinking? (then and now)
 3. What were you feeling? (then and now)
 4. Who else has been affected by this?
 5. What do you need to make this better? (ie: to repair the harm done)

This approach also encourages the pupil /pupils to take responsibility for their actions and everybody’s well-being. It underpins and consolidates the learning process of our social skills, self-management, and emotional awareness and the concomitant development of self-esteem. It does not avoid consequences or even sanctions for unhelpful behaviours, but it helps to draw a line after a mistake and allows a pupil to begin again with confidence. It builds vocabulary and attitudes to others as part of school ethos.

Or Tools such as Comic Strip Conversations and Blank Questions for Playground Incidents may be helpful in this process.

- The child/children should be reminded of the school rules and asked how they can put things right. Consequences should be appropriate; they should be natural or logical consequences to fit the act. We need to make it clear that it is something the child has done that is disapproved of and not the child themselves. Consequences must be followed through or we risk teaching children that what we say can be safely ignored.

APPENDIX 6 – Individual Support, SEN & Equal Opportunities

INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT

There will always be a small number of children who, for whatever reason, find that they need additional individualised support with their behaviour, early identification and intervention being essential.

The class teacher might try to clarify the behaviour problem by asking the “wh” questions:

- What is going wrong?
- Where are incidents occurring?
- With whom?
- When?

The class teacher may want to complete the ABC (Antecedents, Behaviour and Consequences) Analysis Sheet (found within the Inclusion Toolkit) to begin the investigation process and establish triggers and types of low level behaviour.

A member of the Inclusion Team can help with this. Consider: what is the communication? Are any needs unmet? (See Maslow’s Hierarchy of Needs, Inclusion Toolkit)

- Discuss the above findings with the SENCO and SLT.
- Sometimes, Solution Circles (in Inclusion Toolkit) are an appropriate method for exploring ways forward with individuals.
- Keep parents informed with respect to lower level behaviour incidents.

Class Teacher to organise a parent/carer meeting which may involve the SENCO, FLO and member of Inclusion Team. Identify what skills, strengths or positive elements already exist to enable a way forward.

- Consider needs that are unmet and possible solutions for meeting these needs.
- Initiate target setting and identify support.
- Consider whether or not a Behaviour Support Plan is necessary.

The SENCO will also consider whether the continuing behaviour might be the results of unmet educational or other needs. At this point, the SENCO/FLO will consider whether a Common Assessment Framework form needs to be completed.

SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEEDS AND DISABILITIES

Pupils with special educational needs and disabilities need to learn positive behaviours and take an active role in being responsible for how they behave and for their actions. Every available opportunity is made to teach, model and promote positive behaviour, raise confidence and self-esteem and develop personal and social skills. Preventative planning and intervention at an organisational, classroom and individual level can help alleviate situations by allowing pupils to remain composed, maintain their self-esteem and continue their activities in a positive way. Additional strategies such as visual support, additional adult support, social stories, formal time out, breaks, enhanced parental contact and personalized reward systems may be needed. Children with special educational needs and disabilities are not outside of the school behaviour policy especially when proven strategies are being ignored and the safety and learning of others is being impacted upon.

In some situations the use of sanctions for SEND children may be appropriate in order to support pupils to behave appropriately and learn acceptable behaviours. This enables them to access the learning environment in a positive way. A graded approach to the use of sanctions, clearly explained to the pupils is used throughout the school. These can be supplemented with

- Early intervention/distraction/diffusion
- Behaviour reminders/use of voice intonation/visual cues/support
- Social Stories
- Time Out – timed and supervised by staff in the classroom or if necessary a different classroom. Pupils may be supported to reflect on their actions during this time
- Behaviour Support Plan/ Sensory Support Plan – for pupils requiring ongoing planned support
- Physical intervention
- Exclusion – in some exceptional circumstances, or when all other measures have been unsuccessful, it may be necessary to exclude a pupil from school.

MONITORING, EVALUATION AND REVIEW

Methods used to monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of the behaviour policy include the following:

- Discussions with learners
- Referrals to Inclusion Team/SLT
- Feedback from staff
- Lesson observations by SLT
- Feedback from parents
- School Council feedback
- External evaluation
- Governor's Meetings

Equal Opportunities

- This policy is applicable to all groups of individuals within the school regardless of gender, ethnicity, culture, religion, colour, disability, need or nationality.

APPENDIX - Duty of Care – Plan I

At Rushmere, we have a ‘shared preferred practice’ which is an agreed set of strategies that we intend to use across the whole school.

Time of day	Before school & after whistle blows
--------------------	-------------------------------------

Purpose / aims
<ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ To ensure children enter the classroom ready to learn➤ To achieve a smooth transition from the playground to the classroom➤ To reduce wasted time at the end of playtimes and start of the day➤ To ensure an efficient and effective start to the school day

What the teacher does?
<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ Teacher in playground at the time of the bell.✓ Teachers available to liaise with parents / carers before the whistle signals the start of the day✓ Teacher stands at the start of the line waiting for pupils to line up.✓ Teacher walks along the line reinforcing the expectation and encouraging rest of the pupils in the playground to line up quickly and sensibly.✓ Teacher is 100% focused on their class and not talking to other teachers.✓ Teacher tries to use non-verbal cues in order to reinforce expectations.✓ Once line is still and quiet, teacher the leads the class in from the front.✓ Teacher stops if behaviour is not good enough. Waits with line until ready to continue.✓ Remind children to ensure lunchboxes are on the trolley before children enter the building.✓ Greet / acknowledge children. Personal comments / praise / notice good behaviour.

Rules for the children / what the teacher says?
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ “Line up”▪ “Stand still, facing forwards”▪ “Mouths closed”▪ “One behind the other”▪ “Ready to learn”▪ “Hands to ourselves”▪ Positive praise and reinforcement. Praise for making good choices.▪ “When the whistleblows we show we are ready to learn”

APPENDIX - Duty of Care – Plan II

Time of day	Playground
--------------------	------------

Purpose / aims
➤	To keep everyone safe and happy
➤	To break up the day with physical activity and social interaction in a safe and supervised location

What the teacher does?
✓	Make sure they are adults on duty before sending children out
✓	If it is your duty Day be on time
✓	Duty teachers need to be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Actively supervising -Encouraging positive play -Encourage children to problem solve independently -Respond to first aid and make decisions about sending children in -Discuss behaviour with children and solve issues that may arise
✓	Teachers to remind class of playground rules on a regular basis new line teacher to encourage a buddy up system for children within the class
✓	Teacher to praise or acknowledge some positive playground behaviour
✓	Teachers to collect children from the playground promptly
✓	Teachers are ideally in the playground when the whistle blows.
✓	Teachers on duty blow the whistle once to indicate the children need to stop and stand still and then blow the whistle the second time which is for the children to line up. (Children must not be allowed to line up until all of them are silent and all of them are still. The teacher on duty will have to wait for as long as it takes for this behaviour to be displayed)
✓	Teachers to remind children of playground rules
✓	Key Stage 2 children given clarification on the rules and who sets the rules with regards to football
✓	Teachers will be allocated to specific parts of the playground in order to ensure they are spread out and in a suitable position to observe the children
✓	Teachers to remind you I need to ask to go to the toilet
✓	Teachers to remind children that they eat their snacks sitting or standing on the soft play area or under the tree
✓	Teachers reinforce message about litter going into the bin in the snack area

What the SLT do?
✓	SLT will reinforce these messages in assemblies
✓	SLT will ensure the rules are clear regarding play times
✓	SLT members will ensure that timetables the supervision and rotas are shared with staff members and expectations regarding their supervision is made explicit

Rules for the children / what the teacher says?
▪	Sensible play
▪	Sensible choices
▪	No physical games. No play fighting.
▪	Keep your hands to yourself
▪	Snacks in the soft play area
▪	Speak to an adult if you need to use the toilet
▪	Keep off the grass in winter
▪	Respect the adults decisions

APPENDIX - Duty of Care – Plan III

Time of day	Releasing children at lunchtime
--------------------	--

Purpose / aims
<ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ To ensure Key Stage 2 children leave calmly and walk to the playground➤ To ensure eyfs pupils finish lunch and maintain behaviour expectations set at the start of the lunch.➤ To ensure Key Stage 1 children are line up quietly and walking to lunch sensibly

What the teacher does?
<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ EYFS Walk to hall quietly and supervise children getting lunch. Teacher to monitor behaviour and sit with certain children who might be challenging. Set Expectations for lunchtime. Model good behaviour and promote those children who are good role models✓ Key Stage 1 Walk children to the hall quietly and set expectations for arrival at the hall and Expectations for eating in the dinner hall. Refer children to the posters on the windows as a reminder.✓ Key Stage 2 Line children up in the classroom and walk children to the playground. Which are the same expectations as when moving around the school. Pupil can leave in groups etc but this needs to be controlled and ordered.✓ Midday supervisors to line children up in classes in the playground and walk the children to the hall. MDSAs to provide the children with a clear expectation and to stop and return to the original points if children are not meeting the expectation and are ready for lunch.✓ All staff to return to the hall on occasions to remind children of the behaviour expectations and to praise those who are following them.

What the SLT do?
<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ SLT reinforces the expectations during the lunch.✓ SLT praise children that are doing or modelling the expected behaviour.✓ SLT to be present over the lunch and be visible.✓ SLT to provide regular messages within school assemblies regarding lunchtime behaviour.✓ SLT to ensure that midday supervisors are clear on the procedures for lunchtime

Rules for the children / what the teacher says?
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Move quietly around the school▪ Same rules different time of day▪ Line up▪ Mouth closed▪ Sensible walking▪ Calm▪ Indoor voices▪ Show me you are ready for lunch▪ (Read and refer to the messages on the school dining room walls)
